Dear Unit-holder,

We are pleased to present you the following annual report for the ERSTE STOCK ENVIRONMENT jointly owned fund pursuant to the InvFG for the accounting year from 1 May 2020 to 30 April 2021.

As a so-called feeder fund (§ 93 InvFG), ERSTE STOCK ENVIRONMENT had 99.91% of its assets invested in ERSTE WWF STOCK ENVIRONMENT (the so-called master fund) as of 30 April 2021. Details about ERSTE WWF STOCK ENVIRONMENT can be found in the annual report for ERSTE WWF STOCK ENVIRONMENT as of 30 April 2021, which is available at the website www.erste-am.at.

The aggregate charges are made up of the TER of the feeder and the TER of the master fund together. The aggregate charges amount to 2.00%.

Even as the COVID-19 pandemic spreads, we are not losing sight of our responsibility to manage the assets entrusted to our care in a manner that maintains our ability to act on the capital markets and that enables us to make the best possible allocation decisions.

Modern technology also allows us to meet these obligations in full via teleworking.

Development of the Fund

As a feeder fund, ERSTE STOCK ENVIRONMENT invests at least 85% of its assets (as of 30 April 2021: 99.91%) in ERSTE WWF STOCK ENVIRONMENT, which means that it follows the strategy of ERSTE WWF STOCK ENVIRONMENT.

ERSTE WWF STOCK ENVIRONMENT is a theme fund focusing on companies engaging in business activities that are related to environmental and climate protection. The predominant fields in which the fund invests are water, recycling, renewable energy, energy efficiency, and mobility. The exclusion criteria include atomic energy, green gene technology, animal testing, whale hunting, industrial livestock farming, gambling, pornography and prostitution, chlorine chemicals and agrochemicals, the destruction of natural habitats, products emitting CFCs, and PVC products as well as the oil and gas, mining, arms and weapons, aviation, and passenger car and motorcycle industries in general.

The investment objective of the Management Company's impact funds is to generate the expected returns while investing in concrete solutions to social and environmental challenges such as climate change. This is intended to achieve a measurable positive sustainable impact. The added environmental or social value that the Management Company's impact funds create is calculated in detail and depicted in a transparent manner. This information is provided in addition to the company-wide reporting on carbon intensity and the calculation of the water footprint.

The recovery that set in on the markets at the end of March after the pandemic-driven sell-off continued early in the reporting period. Optimism regarding the normalisation of global economic development, the European Commission's proposal of a EUR 750 billion economic stimulus package, and the approval of economic support measures in further countries (including Japan) put investors in a buying mood. American shares surpassed the pre-pandemic highs in August already. Especially news about progress in the development of a vaccine against the coronavirus supported the equity markets despite rising case numbers. Sentiment darkened noticeably starting in September, primarily due to the failure of Democrats and Republicans in the USA to agree on a new fiscal package before the presidential election. The uncertainty surrounding the election outcome and new lockdowns in many parts of the world also had a negative impact on equities. Immediately after the November 3 elections in the USA, from which Joe Biden emerged victorious, sentiment turned. In addition to the election outcome, especially encouraging vaccine news from several health care companies boosted the markets. The positive fundamental sentiment continued in December, and the global equity markets closed the year with a gain. The favourable sentiment was again due to the optimism surrounding the vaccines. Vaccinations began in the USA, EU, and United Kingdom following the approval of multiple products by the authorities. The fact that a Brexit deal was reached just in time for Christmas also had a positive effect, and averted a hard Brexit. The uptrend on the international equity markets initially continued in the new year. Budding inflation fears that were fuelled by the surprisingly strong and rapid economic recovery and the associated substantial increase in yields triggered a brief correction in February and March, after which the markets resumed their climb – which continued through to the end of the reporting period. Thus, the global equity markets posted very positive performance for the reporting period as a whole. Under these conditions, the fund achieved a positive performance of 92.91% (ISIN AT0000A2BYA4) for the accounting year.

Among the themes covered by the master fund, renewable energy turned in especially pleasing performance over the past year, and companies in the fuel cell segment also delivered very strong returns. Mobility and recycling also posted above-average performance. Water failed to keep pace with the overall market. In regional terms, American names delivered the best performance followed by Japan, though this performance was mitigated by the weaker US dollar and Japanese yen versus the euro. European shares delivered positive performance but were unable to keep up with the overall market.

Within the portfolio of the master fund, we continued the strategy that we adopted in March of focusing on high quality companies with strong balance sheets and high growth. Here, we especially increased investment in renewable energy, recycling, and mobility names, and also added some newcomers with promising technologies and products to the portfolio. The highest weightings are currently in renewable energy and energy efficiency followed by water, recycling, and mobility.

No exchange traded equity index futures or options were used in the fund in the reporting period, and no currency hedges were employed.

General information about performance:

The performance of unit categories with no outstanding units at the end of the reporting period or no outstanding units during the reporting period is generally based on the dividend-adjusted performance of the overall fund. In these cases, the performance is not reported below.

When a unit category is issued during the reporting period, the performance and reinvestment are calculated from the point in time that the unit category is launched. Because of this and possible other fees and currency classes, the performance and reinvestment of this unit category differ from those of comparable unit categories.

The performance is determined assuming the reinvestment of all paid dividends and amounts at their nominal value on the day of disbursement.

1. Value Development over the Accounting Year (Fund Performance)

Calculation according to the OeKB method per unit in the unit currency not accounting for a front-end surcharge

The performance of unit categories with no outstanding units at the end of the reporting period or no outstanding units during the reporting period is generally based on the dividend-adjusted performance of the overall fund. In these cases, the "performance", the "net earnings per unit", and the "total value including (notional) units gained through disbursement/payment" are not reported in the following.

When a unit category is issued during the reporting period, the performance is calculated from the point in time that the unit category is launched. Because of this and possible other fees and currency classes, the performance of this unit category differs from that of comparable unit categories.

Principles governing performance-based remuneration components

The Management Company has adopted remuneration principles to prevent possible conflicts of interest and to ensure compliance with the standard rules of conduct when awarding remuneration to relevant persons.

Fixed salary components make up a large enough share of the total remuneration of all employees of the Management Company that a variable remuneration policy can be applied on an individualised basis.

The total remuneration (fixed and variable components) is governed by the principle of balance and is linked to sustainability so that the acceptance of excessive risks is not rewarded. Therefore, the variable remuneration forms no more than a balanced portion of the total remuneration awarded to an employee.

The performance-based remuneration components serve the short-term and long-term interests of the Management Company and contribute to preventing risky behaviour. The performance-based remuneration components take into account individual performance as well as the profitability of the Management Company.

The size of the bonus pool is calculated based on the bonus potential that can be applied to the different employee categories. Bonus potential is a percentage of the fixed annual gross remuneration. The bonus potential can be no more than 100% of the fixed annual gross remuneration. The bonus pool is adjusted depending on the success of the Management Company. The personal bonus is linked to individual performance. The total of personal bonuses is limited by the size of the bonus pool after deduction of penalties.

The performance-based payments are capped at 100% of the annual gross remuneration for all employees, including the material risk bearers (according to the definition in the remuneration policy) and managing directors of the Management Company.

The remuneration system is made up of three components:

- 1) Fixed remuneration
- 2) Variable remuneration
- 3) Fringe benefits

The bonus potential is based on the fixed annual gross remuneration. The target agreements concluded with the employees contain qualitative and/or quantitative objectives. The payment of performance-based remuneration components is subject to a minimum profitability level for the Management Company and to performance targets.

Sixty per cent of the performance-based remuneration components are paid immediately; for employees who are involved directly in fund and portfolio management, 50% of this is paid immediately in cash and 50% is paid one year later in the form of non-cash instruments. The remaining 40% of the performance-based remuneration components are retained and paid out over a period of three years, with 50% of this also being paid in cash and 50% in the form of non-cash instruments for employees who are involved directly in fund and portfolio management. The non-cash instruments can consist of units in an investment fund that is administered by the Management Company, equivalent holdings or instruments linked to units, or equivalent non-cash instruments. Based on the principle of proportionality, the Management Company has set a materiality threshold below which there is no incentive to enter into inappropriate risks, for which reason there is no need to make delayed payment or payment in the form of a non-cash instrument. Other non-cash benefits are fringe benefits that are not associated with performance but with a specific position (e.g. company car) or that apply for all employees (e.g. holiday).

The Supervisory Board of the Management Company has set up a Remuneration Committee to ensure that the remuneration policy and its application are independently assessed. This committee consists of the following persons: Rudolf Sagmeister, Harald Gasser (remuneration expert), and Heinrich Hubert Reiner.

The complete remuneration policy of the Management Company can be viewed at http://www.erste-am.at/de/private\_anleger/wer-sind-wir/investmentprozess.

The last audit of compliance with the requirements of the remuneration policy by the Supervisory Board on 27 March 2020 revealed no deviations. There were also no material findings during the last audit by the Internal Auditing department.

No material changes were made to the remuneration policy during the past accounting year.

Audit Report*

Statement on the annual report

Audit opinion

We have audited the annual report prepared by Erste Asset Management GmbH, Vienna, for the fund under its management

ERSTE STOCK ENVIRONMENT
Jointly owned fund pursuant to the InvFG

consisting of the statement of assets and liabilities as of 30 April 2021, the income statement for the accounting year ending on this date, and the other information specified in Annex I Schedule B of the Austrian Investment Fund Act 2011 (InvFG 2011).

Based on the findings of our audit, we believe that the annual report satisfies the legal requirements and provides a true and fair view of the assets and financial position as of 30 April 2021 and of the earnings position of the fund for the accounting year ending on this date in accordance with Austrian commercial law and the provisions of the InvFG 2011.

Basis for the audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with § 49 (5) InvFG 2011 and in accordance with the Austrian principles of good auditing. These principles require the application of the International Standards on Auditing (ISA). Our responsibilities under these regulations and standards are described in the section “Responsibilities of the auditor in auditing the annual report” of our audit report. We are independent from the company as specified by the Austrian commercial and industry regulations and fulfilled our other professional obligations in accordance with these requirements. We feel that the audit evidence that we obtained up to the date of the audit certificate is sufficient and suitable to serve as a basis for our audit opinion as of that date.

Other information

The legal representatives are responsible for the other information. The other information includes all information in the annual report except for the statement of assets and liabilities, the income statement, the other information specified in Annex I Schedule B of the InvFG 2011, and the audit report.

Our audit opinion does not cover this other information, and we provide no assurance whatsoever for this other information.

In the context of our review of the annual report, we are responsible for reading this other information and assessing whether the other information contains material inconsistencies with the annual report or with the information gathered by us during our audit, or appears to contain other manners of material misstatements.

Should we come to the conclusion on the basis of the work completed with the other information received before the date of the audit report that this other information contains a material misstatement, we are required to report about this fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management and supervisory board responsibilities relating to the annual report

The legal representatives are responsible for preparing the annual report and for ensuring that this report provides a true and fair view of the assets and financial and earnings position of the fund in accordance with Austrian commercial law and the provisions of the InvFG 2011. The legal representatives are also responsible for implementing the internal controls that they deem necessary to facilitate the preparation of an annual report that is free from material misstatements due to error or fraud.

The supervisory board is responsible for monitoring the accounting process of the company as it applies to the fund under its management.

Responsibilities of the auditor in auditing the annual report

Our goals are to ascertain with sufficient certainty whether the annual report contains material misstatements due to error or fraud and to issue an audit certificate that includes our audit opinion. Sufficient certainty is a high degree of certainty but no guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Austrian standards on good auditing, which require the application of the ISA, will always discover material misstatements that may be present. Misstatements can result from fraud or errors and are considered to be material when it can be reasonably expected that individual misstatements or a combination of misstatements can influence economic decisions made by readers on the basis of this annual report.

As part of an audit conducted in accordance with the Austrian standards on good auditing, which require the application of the ISA, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism during the entire audit process.

In addition:

- We identify and assess the risks of material misstatements in the annual report due to error or fraud, plan audit steps in response to these risks, perform the planned audit steps, and collect audit evidence that is sufficient and suitable to form a basis for our audit opinion. The risk that a material misstatement resulting from fraud will remain undiscovered is greater than for misstatements resulting from error because fraudulent activity can include collusion, the falsification of documents, intentional incomplete or misleading representations, and the circumvention of internal controls.
- We familiarise ourselves with the internal control systems that are relevant for the audit to plan audit steps that are appropriate under the specific circumstances, but not so as to state an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control system.

- We assess the appropriateness of the accounting methods applied by the legal representatives and the reasonableness of the estimates made by the legal representatives in the accounts and of the associated information.
- We assess the overall presentation, the structure, and the content of the annual report including the figures as well as whether the annual report depicts the underlying transactions and events in a manner that provides a true and fair view.
- We discuss the planned scope and scheduling of the audit and any material audit findings, including material defects that we discover in the internal control system during our audit, with the supervisory board, among other issues.
